Fright Night Costume Winners Announced

Over 200 children participated in the costume contest held as part of Fright Night on October 29, 2009. Children up to 14 years could participate for prizes in the following categories: scariest, most creative, most unique, funniest, most adorable, most glamorous, best pair or group, and best superhero or cartoon character. Prizes were awarded in six places per category and winners received a gift bag filled with prizes. All participants received a bag full of treats. Fright Night is presented by Rock Island Parks & Recreation, Rock Island Library, Rock Island Community Area Project, and The District.

Congratulations to all the winners! If your child was not present at the awards ceremony and you did not receive your prize, please contact Rock Island Parks and Recreation office at 309.732.7275. Photos of the winners are posted at www.ridistrict.com.
