

Rock Island Arts Advisory Committee, Meeting Summary for February 13th, 2019

Committee Present: Brett Hitchcock, Lori Roderick, Carolyn Krueger, Dawn Wohlford-Metallo, and Joedy Cook

Staff Present: Kathy Douglass

Visitors: none

Review of Minutes from Previous Meeting: Dawn Wohlford-Metallo made a motion to approve the January 2019 Arts Advisory Committee meeting minutes, and Joedy Cook seconded the motion. The January 2019 minutes were then approved by all the members present.

Art meter Coin Collection and Survey Distribution: Kathy Douglass circulated a copy of a four-question survey that will be distributed to the Art Meter hosts when coin donations are collected this month.

2019 Sculpture Selection in March: Dawn Wohlford-Metallo told the committee that the committee should be able to select sculptures for the 2019 season at the March 13th meeting.

Other Business:

-) Kathy Douglass will be inviting Amber Williams, an artist from Desoto Arts, to attend the Arts Advisory March committee meeting in hopes that she will be interested in filling the vacancy left by Erik Reader's resignation. Brett Hitchcock asked if there was someone at Renaissance Rock Island that might also be interested in filling the vacancy. Kathy said she would again email Erik for a name from that organization.
-) Kathy showed the committee a schedule for the landscaping project at the "Five Points Intersection" and the area near the sculpture pad at Longview Park.

Next Meeting Date: March 13th, 2019 at 4:00 PM in the City Hall lower level conference room.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 4:45 PM.
