Workshop Discussion for 2023 Quad City Arts Sculpture Program

- i. Discuss possible locations for a fourth sculpture. Kevin Maynard gave the commission an overview of the Sculpture Program and Kathryn Douglass reminded the commission where the current sculpture locations are - which are Longview park, the southwest library, and the five-points intersection. Tanner Osing explained that a fourth sculpture and location did not need to be selected at this meeting. Once a location is determined by the commission at the upcoming April 19th meeting there will still be time to select a fourth sculpture.

- ii. Review sculptures for the 2023 Program.* The commission reviewed a slideshow provided by Quad City Arts of the available sculptures for the 2023 season, with descriptions from the sculptors and information on size and material.

Approval of first and second choices for the 2023 Quad City Arts Sculpture Program

Pat Stolley moved to approve the following first and second choices for the 2023 Quad City Arts Sculpture Program.

- Longview Park – first choice is Grace by David Zahn and second choice is Bloom by Hilde Debruyne
- Five Points Intersection – first choice is High Steppin by Andrew Arvanetes and second choice is Set Sail by Tim Adams
- Southwest Library – first choice is Tricky Situation by Matt Miller and second choice is Metamorphosis by Hilde Debruyne

Brandy Vandewalle seconded the motion. The motion carried unanimously on a vote of 6 to 0.
