New Business

Report from staff on results of the sculpture selection meeting at Quad City Arts

Kathy Douglass reported that Rock Island will be displaying the following sculptures for the 2022 season –

- “Expand and Grow” by Micki LeMieux will go to the southwest library
- “Window Dressing” by Tim Adams will go to the five points intersection
- “Wheels of Fire” by Steven Maeck will go to Longview Park

Report from staff about the new location for Moon Shadow at Weber Park

Kathy Douglass reported that the Public Works Department will be moving the sculpture “Moon Shadow” to an existing concrete pad that has been located on a small rise on the southwest corner of Weber Park

Report from staff on balance of funds from donations to the Art Meters

1. Kathy Douglass reported that the balance is $467.00. She suggested that these funds might be used to light one of the permanent sculptures in Rock Island. Members of the Arts Commission directed her to research the cost of installing lighting to the sculpture “Growing Up” located at the foot of the Centennial Bridge.
