Review and discuss the quarterly report from Quad Cities Arts on art services provided in Rock Island

Kevin Maynard talked about the 2022 sculpture program sculptures choices and also the Rock Island "Caulk Fest". The Chalk Fest was a great success and had a large attendance. The only issue was an unexpected expense of power-washing the chalk drawings after the festival. Better joint promotion of both the Rock Island Artist Market event and next year's Chalk Fest was also discussed, especially if the events are scheduled on the same day. Also, the vinyl window art made by the Metro Arts Youth Program for the building located on the corner of 17th Street and 2nd Avenue have not been applied to the windows, because the developer who purchased the building has not given their approval yet.

Finalize the details on the Artist Market T-shirts order

Kathy Douglass will order twenty-four T-shirts from Source1 graphics. Eight each of the medium, large, and extra-large sizes.
