

ROCK ISLAND
ILLINOIS

Mayor Dennis E. Pauley

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, Quad Cities Interfaith has been an organization of congregations and community groups for thirty years; and
- WHEREAS, the organization has built leadership and addressed local issues in the Quad city region of Illinois and Iowa; and
- WHEREAS, various actions and initiatives have been successfully developed in response to community needs including; and
- WHEREAS, QCI's 100 Ready Workers Program to keep skilled construction jobs local and those opportunities open to minorities and women via job preparedness training and especially bringing to our area the Highway Construction Career Training Program (HCCTP) at Black Hawk College; and
- WHEREAS, QCI organized and led a diverse group of mental health, health care, advocacy and law enforcement communities to establish a pilot Mental Health Court in Scott County, Iowa in July 2016, thus creating the opportunity for eligible people to get the mental health treatment they need and avoid incarceration and recidivism.

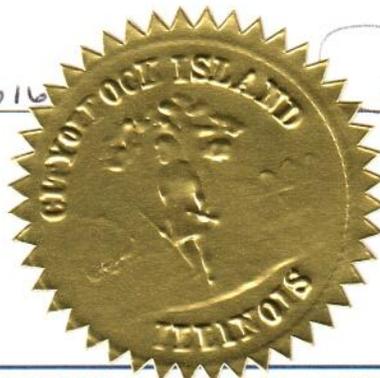

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dennis E. Pauley, Mayor of the City of Rock Island, proclaim Sunday, September 11, 2016 as in the City of Rock Island and call upon all citizens of our great City to join with me in congratulating the members of this organization on their 30th Anniversary and in encouraging this fine organization on its next 30 years of service to our City.
