WAIVERS AND PERMISSIONS

The Illinois Department of Human Services and the Martin Luther King Center may photograph your child for means of publication purposes. The photographs could be used in IDHS publication to create positive press for the Teen REACH (After School) Program. Photos might also be used in various brochures describing and promoting the program in a positive way. In no way will the photos be used in any illegal misrepresentation of your child. The Martin Luther King Center does take pictures of the programs and participants during the normal course of programming, special events, as well as any function pertaining to the Martin Luther King Center. I agree to allow the Martin Luther King Center or its agent to take pictures and use them for publicity.

Are we permitted to use photographs of your child for this purpose? Yes No

Please be aware that in signing up and participating in this program, you will be expressly assuming the risk and legal liability and waiving and releasing all claims for injuries, damages or loss which you or your minor child/ward might sustain as a result of participating in any service/vehicle operation, when provided. I recognize and acknowledge that there are certain risks of physical injury to participants in this program, and I voluntarily agree to assume the full risk of any and all injuries, damages or loss, regardless of severity, that my minor child/ward or I may sustain as a result of said participation. I further agree to waive and relinquish all claims I or my minor child/ward may have for accrue to me or my child/ward as a result of participating in this program against the Martin Luther King Center including its officials, agents, volunteers, and employees, (hereafter collectively referred to as MLK Dept.) I do hereby fully release and forever discharge the MLK Dept. from any and all claims for injuries, damages or loss that my minor child/ward or I may have or which may accrue to me or my minor child/ward and arising out of, connected with, or in any way associated with this program. Warning of risk, recreational programs are intended to challenge and engage the physical, mental and emotional resources of each participant. Despite careful and proper preparation, instruction, medical advice, conditioning, and equipment, there is still a risk of serious injury when participating in any recreational program. Understandably, not all hazards and dangers can be foreseen. Depending on the particular activity, participants must understand that certain risks, dangers, and injuries due to inclement weather, slipping, falling, poor skill level or conditioning, carelessness, horseplay, unsportsmanlike conduct, premises defects, inadequate supervision, instruction or officiating, and all other circumstances inherent to indoor and outdoor recreational programs exist. In this regard, it must be recognized that it's impossible for the MLK Dept. to guarantee absolute safety.

Afterschool Program and Summer Day Camp Only:

The King Center is a Teen REACH Provider and tracks all attendance on its eCornerstone system.

Does the King Center have permission to track your child's attendance on eCornerstone? Yes No
