

DEER CROSSING SIGNS

Since Deer Crossing signs are not commonly used within the City of Rock Island, the Illinois Department of Transportation (IDOT) was consulted for guidance on their use and applicable installation standards.

IDOT no longer installs Deer Crossing signs, as multiple studies have shown that these signs do not reduce the number of vehicle-animal collisions or measurably influence driver behavior.

Based upon this information, the City does not install Deer Crossing signs.