

ROCK ISLAND
ILLINOIS

Mayor Dennis E. Pauley

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, William D. "Bill" Hotle was born May 15th, 1918, is now 95 years of age and has called Rock Island home for 74 of those years; and

WHEREAS, he moved to Rock Island from his country home in Iowa in 1940 to find a job in "the big city"; and

WHEREAS, he returned to Rock Island after serving in the Army in World War II, where he married his wife, Dorothy and raised two children; and

WHEREAS, Bill worked for Case IH in Rock Island for nearly 40 years, retiring in 1980; and

WHEREAS, after retirement, Bill spent his time going on long walks in the City, gardening, and golfing, even scoring a hole in one at Highland Springs Golf Course; and

WHEREAS, Bill has always been known to have a keen sense of humor; and

NOW, THEREFORE, in honor of this longtime Rock Island resident and to fulfill a lifelong wish, I, Dennis E. Pauley, Mayor of the City of Rock Island, proclaim William D. "Bill" Hotle as

Honorary Animal Control Officer in the City of Rock Island, Illinois.
