Dear Aleisha:

The Quad Cities River Bandits request approval from the City of Rock Island to conduct a 5K/1 Mile race Saturday morning on the 12th of April, 2014. The race will begin and end at Modern Woodmen Park, where there will be awards, refreshments, food, games and activities for kids, vendor booths, music and more. The course will traverse over the Mississippi River to include both the Iowa and Illinois sides of the Quad Cities. We have researched the date and are confident we are not squatting on any other race in the immediate area. The race will begin at 8:00am outside the stadium and conclude inside the ballpark.

Our formal request is as follows:

- Reduced northbound lane of Centennial Bridge from 7:45 to 9:00am.
- Closure of bike path between Centennial Bridge and 24th St (bridge leading to Arsenal Island) from 7:45 to 9:00am.
- Closure of bike path from Arsenal Bridge to Modern Woodmen Park from 8:00 to 9:00am.

The QC River Bandits believe that this will be a fun event for families and residents of the QC area and are looking forward to continuing an annual Race to Home 5K at Modern Woodmen Park. The approval of this request and the assistance of the City departments (where needed) will be deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Alexandria Sheffler, Marketing & Promotions Manager
